What's not to recommend? He is a hilarious comedian who NEVER disappoints. We have seen him live a half dozen times, and a few more through various media and we buy tickets to his shows whenever he is close to where we are at the time. The well of material he draws from is vast - unbelievable really how much new material he delivers time and time again.

Most recently, we saw him at the KIRA outdoor amphitheater in St. Andrews on August 20th and he blew us away. His full 75-minute headlining set was a laugh a second - non-stop! His humour is relevant, current but never cruel. Hilarious and fair commentary without any vitriol - a refreshing take on the state of affairs.

If you want to see a completely different side of Mullinger, read his book Brit Happens. When I bought it, I was expecting a very funny book with some personal insights and anecdotes. What I got was a touching and poignant memoir, with a healthy dose of humour. A book of much more substance that stayed with me in a thought-provoking way. But just when things felt a bit heavy, he lifts you with a levity that is like a breath of fresh air. I could go on, but at the risk of turning you off of James, just go see him, or book him or do whatever you need to do to enter his high energy world filled with positivity and laughter.

James Mullinger is a national treasure. They say laughing is good for the soul, but I can also attest that my ab muscles always feel a little stronger after I leave one of his shows. His observations and comments on society are as insightful -- and often profound -- as they are hilarious.

James Mullinger is equal parts hilarious and likeable which is a perfect combination for a comedian. His humor pokes fun at the idiosyncrasies we (especially Maritimers) all share. His bits about homemade wine and the way we give directions are brilliant. He is professional, entertaining and bloody funny! Get tickets to see James Mullinger! You'll be so glad you did.

Absolutely best comedy ever. He came highly recommended from my cousins who live in the U.K and promised I would go. So happy they recommended him. Absolutely hilarious. Have been to 3 of his shows. I highly recommend him for a good night of fun and laughter.

James has a real gift of being able to engage an audience and keep them laughing for hours. We loved his recent show at Yip Cider this week- it was an excellent night of music and comedy. James keeps an audiences in stitches with his stories that are so relatable. Each show has something new and it always feels so current and fresh. We look forward to seeing James in every town (so far we have seen him perform in St Andrews, Saint John, Toronto and the Kingston Peninsula).

Well-Greased man of comedy comes to town

JAMES MULLINGER: THE MAN WITH NO SHAME

A man who has no shame about what he does or has done, taking to the stage to entertain, and perhaps shock, with his wisecracks and raucous speeches to standup, life on the stage, and evidence in general, Mullinger promises to bring you an evening of cracks and laughs, so go along, be surprised, and walk away wondering whether shame is indeed a sin or virtue.
